ABOUT FINE TOONED SYNDICATION

Fine-Tooned.net distributes the comic strip, It's Another Fine Day, and other cartoons written and drawn by Parnell Nelson. Parnell has been drawing for most of his life and selling cartoons and humorous illustrations since the 1970s.

It's Another Fine Day is drawn every week and either emailed to client newspapers or downloaded by the newspapers from this website. Cartoons are sent in both color and black and white and can be used in both print and web editions of your paper for a single weekly fee. Papers will be electronically invoiced monthly unless other arrangements are more convenient for the client paper.
